PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I am an award winning journalist in my final year studying at the University of Salford. Having undertaken a variety of experiences I have built up a number of journalistic skills. During my studies I have successfully hosted a radio show, ran the social media channels for Quays News and produced content for the web platform. I possess strong interview skills for both print and broadcast and I am confident my enthusiasm would benefit a work place.

WORK EXPERIENCE

ITV Wales - October 2016

A reporter assistant covering the World GB rally with ITV presenter Rob Shelley. My main role was filming, editing and interviewing. I filmed an as-live of Rob Shelley at the rally that featured on the six o clock welsh news.

The Sun - Fabulous Magazine - November 2016

As a feature intern for Fabulous Magazine at The Sun, I prepared interviews for celebrities, wrote features and reviews and conducted research. Having my work published for Fabulous Magazine is something I am proud of.

Radio Glan Clwyd - Present

Radio presenter for hospital radio ensuring the show contains a variety of topics. An important aspect of the role is interacting with the audience and taking their requests. The main duty is preparing scripts and interviewing guests.

AWARDS

Best Online Journalist 2016

I was awarded for a human interest feature 'Miscarriage Miracle' that I wrote to fit the style of Take A Break magazine. You can view my piece on my website.
